MRS. HOWARD GOULD IS CHARGED WITH INTOXICATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—To permit counsel for Howard Gould an opportunity "to submit affidavits of three disinterested persons" who had seen Mrs. Gould intoxicated, a hearing on Mrs. Gould intoxicated, a hearing on Mrs. Gould sapplication for alimony at the rate of $120,000 a year was adjourned by Justice Giegerich in the supreme court today.

The adjournment followed a spirited said that on another occasion when court today.

The adjournment followed a spirited discussion between counsel, in the course of which Clarence J. Shearn, attorney for Mrs. Gould, declared the application for adjournment was merely jockeying for delay to "save Mr. Gould a few paltry dollars and to attempt to get on the records wicked and scandalous statements against Mrs. Gould in an attempt to further blacken her character."

Justice Giegerich, without comment, granted the application for adjournment to October 13, after he had learned that Mr. Gould had sent his wife a check for $2,000 as her mouthly allowance yesterday.

and bit Ars. Rissparrick's arm. He said that on another occasion when Mr. and Mrs. Gould were at a theatre Mrs. Gould wrongfully accused her husband of flirting with one of the actresses on the stage and of having winked at the actress. "We will prove," said Mr. Nicoll, "that not alone was Mr. Gould not interested as his wife as o get on the records wicked and scan-lalous statements against Mrs. Gould n an attempt to further blacken her character.''

At the conclusion of the arguments

At the conclusion of the arguments Mr. Shearn, replying, asserted that all these charges were false and were an outrage. He entered a vigorous protest sgainst any adjournment. "This request of Mr. Nicoll's is merely jockeying for delay," said he, "and I insist that this matter should be disposed of now."

Mrs. Gould's suit is for a separation upon the ground of abandonment and cruelty. She has received an allowance of $25,000 a year from her husband since they separated. During the course of his argument for an adjournment. Delancey Nicoll said it was set forth in Mr. Gould's answer that he was granted.

Side by side, rubbing elbows, as it were, are the Hats from our own millinery staff. They rival foreign beauties in all but prices. The DUQUESNE creations are but $5.00, $6.00, $7.50, $8.50, $10.00 and so on: the imported models $25.00 to $100.00. There is so much to see, to learn, to

The Poke Bonnet of a generation past is plainly the inspiration of the fashionable scoop Hat of fall. Even the streamers in the back or 'neath the chin are here to complete the illusion. Hats large and brims bent down; trimmings flat and swathed. Wings, flowers, foliage, colored like flowers; quills nearly a yard long; plumes, paradise birds are the features. Poplin silk, bengasilk and satin are the coverings for the hats, velvet brims with cord edge are new features. The opening is yours to enjoy as it pleases you.
